On the left, a navigation menu lists the following items: "Addressing Emotions at Work™", "Lesson Introduction" (checked), "Overview of the Key Actions", "Addressing Emotions During a Busy Day", "Taking Positive Action: Quick Check", "Helping Others with Their Emotions", "Your Action Plan", and "Lesson Summary" (checked). The main content area features a "Lesson Objective" section with a photo of a woman and the text: "This purpose of this lesson is to provide you with strategies to address and manage strong emotions at work—yours and, when appropriate, those of people you work with." Below this is a "What's Covered" section with a list of learning outcomes: "After taking this lesson, you will be able to: Identify the impact of emotions on your own productivity. Be more aware of factors that cause your emotions to intensify so that you can manage them more effectively. Choose and apply techniques to address your own strong emotions, so you can focus on getting work done. Know when it is useful and appropriate to take positive action to help others manage their emotions. Respond to the strong emotions of others in a constructive and objective way." The bottom of the browser window shows a media player with a progress bar at 00:00/00:00 and navigation buttons for "BACK" and "NEXT". The status bar at the bottom indicates "Done" and "Internet".
